Prices might be adjusted subject to a statutory VAT change.

If a student living in a CTU dormitory stays alone in double room, he or she may ask the Service Facilities Administration (the Accommodation Department) to register the room as single while increasing the current dormitory fee by 50% according to the valid price list.

Any time during the calendar year, the Service Facilities Administration is authorized to use any remaining capacity for commercial purposes.

The year-round accommodation prices shall be reduced to the holiday rates starting from 28 June 2013 (for the duration of summer holiday).

Other provisions of the price list shall remain unchanged.

Dormitory fees shall be applied only to accommodation lasting at least 30 consecutive days.

* C = a corner room in the Strahov Dormitory, block 8.

 A student without a physical disablement staying in a handicapped room shall pay the same dormitory fee and summer holiday fee as for a double room.

Discussed with the CTU Academic Senate in Prague on 27 March 2013
